23nd Annual
School Psychology Institute
Colloquium

Sponsored by the Graduate Programs in School Psychology and the Department of Psychology

Speaker:
Shereen C. Naser, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor of School Psychology
Cleveland State University

Topic: Teaching Kids Child Rights

Dr. Naser received her undergraduate degree in Psychology at the University of Texas, Austin and her doctorate from Tulane University in New Orleans, Louisiana. Dr. Naser worked as a practicing school psychologist before transitioning to academia. Dr. Naser's main research interests include helping to build school capacity to address the varying needs of students struggling behaviorally and emotionally. She is also interested in building these systems in a way that supports ethnically, racially and linguistically diverse students and families both in the U.S. and abroad. Dr. Naser's work is done through a child-rights lens, where children are considered important participants in the school and community decision making processes.
